SHEPPARD SUES FOR INJURY

Wants $25,000 From N. Y. C. A. and Garden Because of Bad Track.

Garden Because of Bad Track.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Melvin W. Sheppard, the runner, brought suit in the Supreme Court yesterday against the F. & D. Company, owners of Madison Square Garden, the Show Corporation, and the New York Athletic Club, for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained February 10 last, when he fell while competing in a meet at the garden. Sheppard says that while he was running at a high rate of speed in a 300-yard dash he stepped on a part of the track that was "weak, dilapidated, rotten, unsafe and dangerous, and unable to sustain his weight." As a result of the fall he bruised his shoulder, elbow, wrist, hip and knee, wrenched his muscular system and shocked his nervous system. nervous system.

He alleges that his injuries are permanent.
